

Descending Angels

"Pole dancing for fun and fitness."

- All classes are on a pre-pay basis. You may either purchase a block, a week, or a single class in advance. You may pay with either cash or check at the end of your previous class, or you may pay via PayPal. You do not have to be a PayPal member to utilize this method.
- Please give 24 hours notice, by phone/text (not e-mail), for rescheduling or cancellations for pole lessons. If less than 24 hours notice is given, for any reason, you will still be charged the full amount of the pole session. If adequate notice is given, you may apply your class purchase to your next visit. (This excludes workshops and pole parties.)
- Workshop purchases and pole party deposits are non-refundable and non-transferable and must be used for the dates/times specified.
- Class purchases are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- If you have not yet paid for your session and there is 24 hours or less until your session is scheduled to start, your session may be canceled.
- Class purchases must be used within 4 months.
- You may schedule standing appointments. You only need to pay for one class in advance. You may keep your standing appointments as long as you are coming to class on a consistent basis.

Thank you for your business!
